CHAPTER 6

Research, Information and Advocacy
Directorate: Developmental & Social Welfare Services

OVERVIEW OF MAIN SERVICES

Any member of the public can contact the nearest office of the Directorate of Social Services for just about any kind of health or welfare-related problem or emergency. Trained social workers will provide advice and individual counselling, and make appropriate medical, legal and other referrals to shelters and places of safety, support groups, professional institutions, etc. The Directorate is particularly sensitive to its legal duty to protect women and children against domestic violence, sexual abuse and neglect.

The Directorate receives referrals from a wide range of organisations and institutions dealing with victims of domestic violence and sexual abuse, and along with the Women & Child Protection Units, the Directorate occupies a central position in the continuum of services available for victims throughout Namibia. If a person in need of assistance is unsure where to go to find it, 'the nearest regional office of the Directorate is probably the best place to start.'

It is notable that under the draft Child Care and Protection Act, any person who is paid to provide any service to children (e.g. a teacher, doctor, nurse) is required by law to report any information that would cause a reasonable person to suspect that a child is in need of protection to a social worker in the Ministry of Health & Social Services, or to the Commissioner of Child Welfare or NAMPOL.

The Directorate of Social Services administers matters relating to foster care, adoption and the temporary placement of minor children in registered places of safety - in accordance with the Children’s Act or the new Child Care and Protection Act when it is passed by Parliament. The Directorate is also responsible for the placement of children in hostels and orphanages.

As a member of Interministerial Committee on Child Justice and all the Child Justice Forums in Namibia, the Directorate also assists children who conflict with the law. It has the authority to recommend an alternative to sentencing for a juvenile offender, and is responsible for providing aftercare services for these children.

Counselling is provided for women, children, men, couples and families - individually or in groups. People with alcohol or drug problems can also contact the Directorate for counselling and rehabilitation. Anyone needing counselling should contact the nearest regional office of the Directorate to arrange for it. Information and advice will be given on the telephone. (Continued overleaf)
This organisation offers the full range of professional social welfare services for persons of any religious denomination or culture.

ADDITIONAL SERVICES

Administers all social allowances, such as old age pensions, maintenance grants for low-income single-parent families, disability grants and pensions, foster parent grants and death and survivor benefits. Also assists in obtaining court orders for child maintenance payments and alimony payments.

The Directorate can assist with emergency relief for the payment of rent, the exemption or reduction of school and hostel fees, hospital fees and related medical costs, and also with funeral expenses.

The Directorate will make appropriate referrals for people to obtain food aid under the National Drought Relief Programme and the Namibian School Feeding Scheme, which are administered by other ministries and agencies. Other kinds of emergency food aid, as well as clothing, can also be arranged.

The Directorate also makes appropriate referrals for people to obtain assistance from the War Orphan’s Fund of the Social Economic Integration Programme for Ex-Combatants (SIPE) or from the Sam Nujoma Orphan’s Fund.

The Directorate assists with referrals in cases of HIV/AIDS, other critical illnesses and disability.

OTHER ACTIVITIES AND INVOLVEMENTS

- Beneficiary of the UNICEF-funded Mobilisation for Children’s & Women’s Rights Programme, which aims to strengthen the capacity of Ministries and other agencies to advocate and lobby for children’s and women’s rights, and to assist children and women in especially difficult circumstances.

- Beneficiary of the Finnida-funded Health and Social Sector Support Programme, which aims to develop a comprehensive social welfare policy for Namibia, including advocating for the rights and protection of children and women as its first medium-term priority.

- Subsidises qualifying welfare organisations with state funds. The National Welfare Act requires all non-governmental organisations offering welfare services to register with the Directorate.

- The Ministry of Health & Social Services conducted a survey on domestic violence and its health consequences in conjunction with the World Health Organization (WHO), as part of a comparative study involving Namibia, the Pacific Islands, Japan, Brazil, Peru and Thailand.

- The Ministry is also in the process of preparing a training manual on how to counsel male perpetrators of violence. Contacts for this programme are Veronica Theron or Betsy Boza Reyes.

COSTS FOR SERVICES

Government services are free of charge.

OVERVIEW OF MAIN SERVICES

The LAC is a non-profit public interest law firm with a head office in Windhoek and additional offices in Katutura, Ongwediva and Keetmanshoop. The LAC’s work is supervised by the Legal Assistance Trust, whose trustees include legal practitioners, church leaders and other community leaders. The LAC’s main objective is to protect the human rights of all Namibians.

The LAC provides legal advice and representation services for people who cannot afford to pay a lawyer. These services are provided only in public interest cases - where the case is likely to have an impact beyond the people directly involved. The lawyers and paralegals are available to give legal advice to anyone approaching their offices with a legal problem or a question about the law. Clients will be referred to the appropriate agencies for further assistance, e.g. to the Ministry of Health & Social Services for welfare assistance and counselling.

The LAC has a Legal Education Unit which offers education on a wide range of legal issues for community groups, school groups, non-governmental organisations and other interest groups. The trainers go out to communities to provide this education on request, and they also target groups who may need this education. The department also trains people who can in turn educate their own community members. The main topics covered in the training workshops include the Namibian Constitution and the laws which provide for the rights of workers, women and children, e.g. the labour law and the laws on marriage, divorce, maintenance, rape and domestic violence.

A very important aspect of the LAC’s work is to do legal research and make policy recommendations for law reform and the use of Namibian legislation to protect the rights of all Namibians. The Gender Research & Advocacy Project is one of the LAC’s permanent projects which does this kind of work. This project has published numerous studies and papers on topics relating to women and children’s rights, as well as a wide range of educational materials on women and children’s rights (in different Namibian languages), which are available from any of the LAC offices. Most of the materials are free of charge. The project is currently focusing on law reform in the area of family law.

Another permanent project of the LAC is the Child Justice Project, which works together with government ministries and non-governmental organisations to find alternatives to prison sentences for children (people under 18 years old) who comes in conflict with the law. The alternative sentencing options are meant to keep children out of the criminal justice system, rehabilitate them and reintegrate them into the community. This project occupies a central position in the continuum of services for children in need of care, and works very closely with the Namibian Police and the other members of the Interministerial Committee on Child Justice and the regional Child Justice Forums, which include governmental and non-governmental representatives.

Another relevant project of the LAC is the AIDS Law Unit, which promotes a human rights based approach to HIV/AIDS in Namibia, addresses issues of social inequality that increase vulnerability to HIV infection as well as discrimination on the basis of HIV status and provides an avenue for remedies for people with HIV or AIDS who have been discriminated against. It enjoys a close working relationship with other AIDS service organisations in Namibia such as NANASO, Catholic AIDS Action and the AIDS Care Trust as well as with organisations of people living with HIV/AIDS such as Lironga Eparu. The Unit also enjoys a close working relationship with the Ministries of Health and Social Services, Basic Education and Labour as well as with trade unions such as the National Union of Namibian Workers (NUNW) and employer organisations such as the Chamber of Mines and the Namibian Employer’s Federation and plans and executes its activities in close collaboration with these partners. It also hosts the regional offices of the AIDS and Rights Alliance for Southern Africa (ARASA)

ADDITIONAL SERVICES

- The LAC publishes the Index to the Laws of Namibia (NAMLEX), which is updated as required.
- The LAC produces the bi-annual Namibian Law Report as a special project.
- Another project is the Land, Environment and Development Project, which carries out research and makes recommendations for law reform in these areas.
- The various projects and departments produce articles on law-related topics for publication in local newspapers, and will do so on request.
- LAC staff can be called upon to join radio and TV panel discussions. The Legal Education Unit makes extensive use of radio to educate communities and will facilitate radio talk shows on request.
- LAC legal practitioners assist in lecturing law students at the University of Namibia, and in training justice officials (magistrates and prosecutors), as well as government and police officials, on various areas of the law.
- Non-governmental and community-based organisations can approach the LAC for assistance in drafting their constitutions and other legal documents.
- The LAC can be called upon to conduct research on behalf of or in conjunction with other organisations - governmental or non-governmental.
- The Legal Education Unit organises community events to mark internationally recognised human rights holidays, such as International Human Rights Day.

OTHER ACTIVITIES AND INVOLVEMENTS

The LAC is a member of numerous committees and networks in Namibia and Southern Africa, and provides ongoing legal, educational and research support to many governmental and non-governmental bodies in Namibia and Southern Africa. Among these bodies are the Southern African Human Rights NGO Network (SAHRINGON) and the Southern African Legal Assistance Network (SALAN). The Namibian bodies relevant to this publication are listed on the previous page.

COST FOR SERVICES

Almost all services are free of charge. Some publications must be paid for, as well as specialist services such as research and lecturing services.

MAIN SERVICES
Therapy and counselling
Education and training
Awareness-raising and information
Other support (child allowances, legal and medical referrals, etc.)

OVERVIEW OF MAIN SERVICES

The MOSS provides a range of therapeutic and rehabilitative services for prison inmates. These services are mainly rendered to sentenced prisoners, and due to a shortage of specialised personnel the MPCS currently concentrates on long-term prisoners who need more intensive services of this kind. The MPCS categorises its services as follows:

Education and Training
Formal education (literacy, secondary, tertiary) is provided in co-operation with the Ministry of Basic Education and Culture, the Namibian Open College of Learning (NAMCOL) and other tertiary institutions. Non-formal education in the areas of small business management, communication skills, leadership and first aid is provided through courses run in co-operation with other ministries and non-governmental organisations. Vocational training in various trade areas is provided in workshops housed in the prisons, and trainees can undergo examinations at the national level to obtain certificates and diplomas in their chosen trade. Informal skills training is provided in areas like needlework and art.

Awareness and Information
Awareness-raising is an important part of the rehabilitation programme in prisons. The MPCS concentrates on “burning issues”, such as HIV/AIDS, violence against women and children, alcoholism and drug abuse.

Therapy and Counselling
Social workers provide counselling and other therapeutic services for individual inmates and groups of inmates, and their family members are involved where necessary.

Support and Assistance
The MPCS ensures that inmates have contact with their families so that their relationships can be rebuilt while the inmates are still in prison. The ministry also assists with allowances to support the children of inmates through the term of imprisonment. Referrals for legal, medical and other forms of support are also made by the social workers.

COSTS FOR SERVICES
Government services are free of charge.

NOTES/ADDITIONS/CHANGES

OVERVIEW OF MAIN SERVICES

The MYS was established to ensure that issues of concern to Namibia's youth are dealt with within the basic human rights framework of the Constitution. ("Youth" is defined as people of both sexes aged 15-30 years). The MYS is responsible for co-ordinating all activities for youth facilitated by itself, other line ministries and non-governmental organisations.

The Directorate of Youth is responsible for actively promoting the contribution of youth to national social and economic development. Enhancing the access of unemployed youth and school dropouts to social and economic services is emphasised. The programmes developed by the Directorate are implemented by the regional youth officers and other staff of the regional youth offices and centres, in collaboration with regional and district youth forums and groups.

The Directorate’s programmes include: the National Juvenile Justice Programme, the Youth & Child Rights Advocacy Programme, the Environmental Education Programme, the Integrated Rural Youth Development Programme, the Youth Health Programme, the Youth Information Programme, the Youth Exchange & Hostelling Programme, and the Provision & Maintenance of Infrastructures Programme.

For the purposes of this directory the most important service of the Directorate is the peer counselling and guidance provided by youth officers at the regional offices and centres. The centres are all tasked to provide the same range of services, though in each region there are variations and some services are more developed than others.

To give an example of services offered in the regions (now or in the future), the Windhoek Multi-Purpose Youth Resource Centre in Katutura offers the following services, among others: career guidance and counselling, skills training and job-seeking assistance for unemployed youth; a library containing information materials and manuals on all kinds of issues affecting young people; a Health Drop-in Centre where youth can receive health services and counselling on issues like HIV/AIDS and other sexually transmitted diseases in a friendly atmosphere; environmental education clubs and support for environmental income-generating projects; leadership training and activities to build self-esteem.

The regional youth offices and centres are there to serve the youth of Namibia, and people aged 15-30 years who need information about or who have been traumatised by domestic violence or sexual abuse can go to any of them to talk to another young person who has been trained to counsel and generally guide them, using the wide range of available resources.

OVERVIEW OF MAIN SERVICES

The NID runs a civic education programme for school groups and adult community groups in all regions, using the local indigenous language wherever possible. The topics covered include human rights issues, democracy and governance, and the rights of women and children are addressed.

The NID produces information and educational materials on democracy and human rights generally, such as a booklet and poster on the Married Persons Equality Act. Materials have also been produced on affirmative action for women in the workplace. All the booklets, pamphlets, posters, videos and stickers produced by the NID are available at the Windhoek office free of charge.

ADDITIONAL SERVICES

• Advocates and lobbies for women and children’s rights through the Multimedia Campaign on Violence Against Women and Children.

• Participates in radio/TV panel discussions on request - also on the various indigenous language services of the Namibian Broadcasting Corporation (NBC).

• Provides voter education for presidential, national, regional and local government elections.

OTHER ACTIVITIES AND INVOLVEMENTS

• Has held a major seminar on the rights of women in an independent Namibia, with published papers.

• Organises seminars on governance and democracy themes with regional councils.

• Runs school competitions from time to time.

OVERVIEW OF MAIN SERVICES

The main function of the Planned Parenthood Association is to raise awareness and sensitise young people, parents and communities at large on issues such as population and development, family planning, sexual and reproductive health, reproductive rights, and gender issues generally, including domestic violence and sexual abuse. This body is very involved in advocacy and lobbying work in these areas, and networks closely with the Department of Women Affairs (see chapter 7) in the process of implementing the National Gender Policy and National Gender Plan of Action.

To raise community awareness the association presents radio talk shows, visits schools to talk to children of all age groups and addresses community workshops organised by other bodies. Its Parent Advisory Committee provides education for adult groups. The association also offers an advocacy training course to train others to raise awareness in their communities.

Trainees in the advocacy training course should be at least 16 years old, but there is no educational requirement. The course is currently conducted in the Khomas, Omusati, Ohangwena and Caprivi Regions. The course is run over 3 days or 1 week with a maximum of 20 participants. The course focuses on population issues, gender issues (including violence and abuse), and sexual and reproductive health. There is no certificate offered, nor any follow-up courses, nor any job placement service.

OVERVIEW OF MAIN SERVICES

NAWA’s focus is on supporting women who are going through divorce, and implementing the Affirmative Action for the Girl Child Project designed after the 4th World Conference on Women in Beijing in 1995.

NAWA facilitates a Divorce Support Club for women. The support that members receive includes accompaniment to court, counselling, advice and referral - particularly to the Legal Assistance Centre (LAC) with which NAWA has a close relationship. NAWA also conducts interviews with women to bolster their confidence and generally empower them to secure a just divorce settlement and maintenance for their children. The club has met with an unprecedented growth in membership. Requests have been received for an extension of the service to other parts of Namibia, but this is not presently possible because NAWA has only one full-time office worker.

As part of the Affirmative Action for the Girl Child Project, NAWA is helping girls to establish a Namibian National Girl Child Organisation to ensure meaningful and organised input into the project. Training courses are run under the project to build capacity and facilitate the establishment of the national Organisation. The project has the full support of the Ministry of Basic Education & Culture and NAWA has access to all schools.

NAWA offers counselling for women, couples and families, and peer counselling training for girl children. People in need of counselling are normally referred by women who have benefited from NAWAs services. Counselling is given in person or on the telephone, and appointments should preferably be made.

The minimum age for girl child peer counselling training is 13-25 years. There is no minimum educational requirement, but trainees are usually girls in secondary school. They are trained by women associated with NAWA, and by members of the Forum for Women Educationalists of Namibia. Courses run for 2 full days, there are 109 trainees per course, and they are run countrywide. The course focuses on mobilising, budgeting, peer counselling and producing a newsletter. A NAWA-designed certificate is given, and follow-up courses are run whenever necessary and if funds are available. There is no job placement service offered.

OTHER ACTIVITIES AND INVOLVEMENTS

- Advocacy and lobbying together with other organisations.
- Joins radio/TV panel discussions - especially on the topic of girl children.
- Produces educational radio tapes for distribution.

OVERVIEW OF MAIN SERVICES

The NWN was founded with the sole objective of promoting legal education and supporting the law reform process. This objective has since shifted to advancing the development of rural women, which includes creating employment for them through income-generating projects set up by the member organisations. The NWN therefore runs several new programmes within the framework of its original Legal Education Project (LEP). Domestic violence and all forms of abuse against women and children are viewed as major obstacles to economic development and constitute the main focus of the LEP. The Legal Education Department of the Legal Assistance Centre was instrumental in motivating the NWN’s formation through its workshops with member organisations, and continues to provide this training service to the NWN members as the need arises, e.g. when new laws affecting women are passed.

The LEP co-ordinates the activities of the NWN member organisations and other agencies in providing information and education on women’s constitutional rights and the legislation affecting them. The LEP tries to be proactive in the law reform process by challenging draft legislation and its implementation, the main objective being to bridge the gap between constitutional law and practice. To this end the LEP gathers information, compiles reports, formulates recommendations and rewrites the relevant legislation in layperson’s language for dissemination to its members and the public.

The LEP identifies annual themes and raises awareness on the related issues through workshop programmes, public meetings, radio talk shows, visiting schools and facilitating activities for school children (such as art competitions, drama and writing exercises). The member organisations all participate in advocacy and lobbying activities around women’s rights, such as protests and campaigns.

As part of its capacity-building programme the NWN offers project management and financial services for its affiliated groups, to help them implement their own projects, which may be income-generating projects. Training is provided in office administration and bookkeeping, social skills and communication, life skills and other areas as required.

The NWN intends to develop counselling training courses to enable members of the affiliated organisations to deal with enquiries on domestic violence, rape, other forms of abuse and other relevant issues.

National Society for Human Rights (NSHR)

OVERVIEW OF MAIN SERVICES

The NSHR’s mission is to proactively monitor government compliance with not only the Namibian Constitution, but also with all international human rights and humanitarian treaties which have been ratified by Namibia and which are therefore binding upon Namibia. The NSHR also trains human rights activists to monitor any violations of human rights in any part of the country.

People who have labour-related problems or problems with issues like maintenance are assisted. People are usually referred to the NSHR by the Namibian Police, the Office of the Ombudsperson, the maintenance courts and women’s organisations. Appointments for assistance are not necessarily needed, but this depends on the matter at hand. The NSHR sometimes acts in an advisory and/or mediatory capacity in disputes. Referrals will be made for legal aid or to the labour courts.

Anyone interested in being trained as a human rights activist should contact the NSHR directly for details on the training programme. Advocacy training is included in the programme.

ADDITIONAL SERVICES

- Provides education on human rights for school groups on request.
- Produces educational materials in the form of booklets, videos and photographic slides, all of which are available free of charge from the office in Windhoek.
- Facilitates community workshops on request.
- Participates in advocacy and lobbying initiatives for law reform in any areas of human rights.
- Joins radio/TV panel discussions on request, and issues media statements where applicable.
- In his personal capacity the NSHR chairperson is also the chairperson of the Children’s Education Centre, a boarding school and shelter in Usakos for children in need of care (see chapter 2). There is no formal connection between the two institutions, but this informal connection is being noted here for the reader’s information.

OVERVIEW OF MAIN SERVICES

The Sister Namibia Collective is a non-governmental and non-partisan women’s organisation established in 1989 with the aim of advocating and lobbying for gender equality and law reform, and opposing racism, sexism and other forms of bigotry.

Its main activity is the publication of a magazine called Sister Namibia, which contains contributions mainly from women and mainly focusing on Namibian issues of relevance to women. The magazine is also a platform for the publication of Namibian poetry. It is published every two months and sold in shops throughout the country.

Sister also offers a well-stocked resource centre with books, magazines, news clippings, pamphlets, videos and other documentation covering areas of feminist theory, health, violence against women, sexuality, education and creative writing by women. Various pamphlets and stickers are also available. The videos can be hired for a period of one week and books and other materials for two weeks.

A Gender Education Programme focusing on topics such as the prevention of child abuse is run for school and adult groups, as well as a Reproductive Health Programme focusing on teenage pregnancy, contraception, abortion, rape and other sexual abuses, and sexuality generally. Discussion evenings for adults are held from time to time.

Information, advice, counselling and referral services are also offered.

ADDITIONAL SERVICES

Advocates and lobbies with other organisations for domestic violence law reform, legal abortion and sex education in schools.

Self-defence training (karate) is provided for trainers by an instructor from the Netherlands.

Offers advertising and publicity opportunities through Sister Namibia magazine.

COSTS FOR SERVICES

Sister Namibia magazine currently sells for N$6,00. There is no charge for hiring any library resource materials, and all other services are free of charge.

NOTES/ADDITIONS/CHANGES

OVERVIEW OF MAIN SERVICES
This is a voluntary support group for past and present woman and child victims of domestic violence and all forms of abuse. The group meets regularly for training and purely social purposes, and offers a safe environment for women to speak openly about their relationships and families. Solidarity among women is encouraged, and the members assist each other in carrying out their daily tasks. The group plans to initiate income-generating activities to support its members, to further the development of women in the community, and to improve the community’s quality of life. The group essentially aims to fight violence in all its forms: physical, sexual, emotional, verbal and economic.

Regular workshops for members are organised, and experts are invited to facilitate sessions on topics like self-esteem, domestic violence, maintenance, poverty, HIV/AIDS, the Namibian Constitution, the Married Person’s Equality Act, children’s rights, women’s rights, human rights generally and abortion. (Group members tend to discourage abortion and rather support girls and women through their pregnancy and in giving birth.) The group tries to arrange for legal education workshops with the Legal Assistance Centre on a monthly basis. Following this training, the group holds public awareness meetings on the issues covered.

ADDITIONAL SERVICES AND INVOLVEMENTS

• Joins initiatives to advocate for and promote women’s rights, the UN Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Violence against Women and the SADC Declaration on Gender and Development. Also renders support wherever possible to the process of analysing and formulating gender policies.

• Disseminates information about domestic violence to raise public awareness, and arranges for training or educational programmes for any interested audience.

COSTS FOR SERVICES
Services are free of charge, but a contribution may be requested if the group has to generate funds to provide a service, e.g. to have information materials produced and printed.

OVERVIEW OF MAIN SERVICES

This is a multi-purpose centre which also provides immediate temporary shelter for women and children when it is unsafe for them to return to their homes. The centre also assists neglected children and infants, and child victims of sexual abuse. Clients should preferably be referred by a social worker or Women & Child Protection Unit, but they can approach the centre without being referred.

The maximum period of stay is 48 hours, depending on the client’s condition. All meals and bedding are provided. Protection from abusers is provided by the Women & Child Protection Unit which is housed in the same building. There is no first-aid assistance provided, but staff will arrange for medical treatment at a hospital. There is no transport provided, but staff at the centre will accompany clients to hospital on foot, and the Women & Child Protection Unit will transport people to hospital if they are in need of urgent care.

Counselling and referral services are provided for women, children and youth, men, couples and families. Counselling is provided in person and it is not necessary to make an appointment. Advice will be given and general enquiries answered on the telephone. There is no job-seeking assistance nor other material assistance provided. The centre will assist clients to report crimes to the police.

Other programmes of the centre are aimed at raising the levels of awareness and self-respect of women, and educating them on how to protect themselves from danger. One programme aims to restore the self-confidence of abused and neglected children.

OVERVIEW OF MAIN SERVICES

Note: All UN agencies are tasked to protect human rights and the rights of women and children, but only the agencies which presently have a direct involvement with projects specifically focusing on domestic violence and all forms of abuse against women and children are being covered in this section.

United Nations Children’s Fund (UNICEF)

UNICEF devotes practically all its efforts to protecting children and promoting their rights. UNICEF analyses development plans of different countries and helps them to plan and design services for children. UNICEF also delivers supplies and equipment and provides funds for training teachers, health workers and social workers. In Namibia UNICEF is very involved in advocacy work on the implementation of the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child and the UN Convention on the Elimination of all Forms of Discrimination Against Women. It provides financial support and technical assistance to numerous projects focusing on children’s and women’s rights, such as the Women & Child Protection Units of the Namibian Police and the Juvenile Justice Project of the Legal Assistance Centre. UNICEF also funds and co-ordinates the Mobilisation for Children and Women Rights Programme (previously called the Family Life Empowerment Programme (FLEP)), which aims to strengthen the capacity of governmental and non-governmental bodies to advocate and lobby for children’s and women’s rights, and to assist children and women in especially difficult circumstances.

United Nations Educational, Scientific & Cultural Organization (UNESCO)

UNESCO’s fundamental responsibility is to enhance people’s ability to appreciate the intrinsic value of all human beings, based on a thorough and positive perception of humanity and the ability to cultivate humanistic tendencies. To achieve this noble ideal, UNESCO pursues activities in the fields of education, science, social and human sciences, culture and communications. The organisation’s constitution confers upon it the mandate to help orient the minds of men and women towards the pursuance of peace and knowledge for the progress of humanity. UNESCO also has a number of inter-sectoral programmes. For instance, activities for the advancement of women are now undertaken in all areas of its competence. A Culture of Peace Programme has also been established. Charged with the responsibility of carrying out programmes and projects within UNESCO’s competence, the Organisation specialises in communication and social and human sciences in Southern Africa, and education and culture in Namibia. As a specialised UN agency, UNESCO works very closely with the other members of the UN system. Co-ordination with other agencies is ensured by the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) Resident Representative, who facilitates the implementation of joint programmes in support of the Namibian government’s Development Plan and other programmes. This co-ordination has been notable through several thematic working groups: the HIV/AIDS Thematic Group, the Gender Thematic Group and the Poverty Alleviation Thematic Group. Co-operation with the government, national institutions and organisations is further promoted through the National Commission for UNESCO in each member state. In Namibia the Commission is coordinated through the Ministry of Higher Education, Vocational Training, Science & Technology.

United Nations Population Fund (UNFPA)
The UNFPA advocates and provides financial and technical support for the promotion, enforcement and safeguarding of the reproductive rights of individuals as agreed upon in the International Conference on Population and Development (Cairo 1994), the 4th World Conference on Women and Development (Beijing 1995) and other relevant international agreements. The UNFPA supports Namibian initiatives in this area through the GRN/UNFPA Country Programme. It advocates through public address, issues media statements where required or on request, joins radio/TV panel discussions on request, and produces educational materials which are available free of charge at the UNFPA office.

United Nations High Commission for Refugees UNHCR)
The UNHCR’s mandate is to assist and protect uprooted people (asylum seekers and recognised refugees). This means that the UNHCR is responsible for providing for the health, food, accommodation and educational needs of uprooted people. This includes providing shelter, counselling, advice, information, some forms of social welfare support, education for school and adult groups, and educational materials (on refugees). It also entails making referrals for medical and legal support, issuing media statements where necessary, facilitating or addressing community workshops, and training people to work with refugees. Recognised refugees whose rights are violated or who suffer abuse in Namibia can contact the UNHCR to report the matter and receive assistance.

United Nations Information Centre (UNIC)
UNIC is responsible for disseminating information to the media and public about the policies and activities of UN agencies, and developments in the human rights arena internationally. All information materials published by the UN are available at the UNIC library free of charge. Many of these materials pertain directly to the rights of women and children and explain specifically what the UN does to address domestic violence and all forms of abuse against women and children. UNIC is tasked to proactively raise awareness of these problems by issuing regular statements and backgrounder’s to the press, radio and TV, by participating in radio/TV panel discussions and by organising activities on occasions such as International Women’s Day.

All services of UN agencies are free of charge.

OVERVIEW OF MAIN SERVICES

The main objectives of the UNAM Gender Training and Research Unit are to carry out research and raise awareness on gender issues generally, to advocate for the eradication of violence against women and to lobby policy-makers for law reform to this end. To achieve these objectives the Unit runs a gender awareness training course in various centres in the country and networks with other organisations dealing with gender issues - mainly the organisations listed on the left.

The gender awareness training course is run in Windhoek, Swakopmund, Okakarara, Okongo and Oranjemund. Trainees should preferably have a Grade 12 certificate to register, but this requirement is not applied in all cases, i.e. candidate suitability is assessed on an individual basis. There is no minimum age requirement. The course is run over a period of 2 weeks, and there should be 25 trainees per course. The course focuses on a range of gender issues, as well as on research and report-writing methodology and skills. A UNAM attendance certificate is issued. There are no follow-up courses offered at present.

From time to time the Unit organises conferences and workshops on gender issues. For example, in September 1999 it hosted a conference on “Gender Perspectives in Law and Violence”.

COSTS FOR SERVICES

Employed people must pay N$109,00 for the training course. Unemployed people and students pay less, depending on what they can afford. It is possible that an employed person earning a very low salary can also pay less. Consultancy or research work done by the Unit is always charged for. Existing information materials may be given free of charge, depending on what type of material is requested.
